

Rule 39-227.4. Entry of Judgment upon a Praeceptum of a Party

In all cases where Rules have been taken, the neglect of which entitled the party to judgment, the same may be entered by the Prothonotary after expiration of the time within which the respondent in the Rule is required to answer. The judgment may be taken on Praeceptum from a party or his attorney, which Praeceptum shall set forth the nature of the default, and when it is for default of plea, shall contain proof of service of the Notice to Plead.
